40	Sancerre Domaine Daulny (Sancerre, Loire, France) Charming, aromatic and fresh, with a grassy bouquet. Ripe fruit flavours of greengage and gooseberry, with a dry, crisp finish. Classic Sauvignon Blanc in all its glory.	54.00
38	Auxey Duresses, Dom. Jean Pascal & Fils, 2016 (Côtes d'Or, Burgundy, France) By Alexandra Pascal, from the small family Domaine. A nutty fresh nose showing a hint of toast to the crisp green fruit.	60.00
25	Chablis 1er Cru, Jean Marc Brochard (Chablis, Burgundy, France) Domaine Jean-Marc Brocard is one of the first wine producers in organic farming in Chablis and Burgundy. With the vineyard alternate layers of lime and clay and wide slope which provides the wines with a classic flint & mineral character which blends in beautifully with floral aromas, followed by a subtle palate showing beautiful notes of lemon.	66.00
34	Meursault 'Les Grand Charrons' Dom. Bouzereau, 2017 (Côtes d'Or, Burgundy, France) This distinguished grower creates rich and voluptuous Meursault, exotic with the bouquet of toasted hazelnuts, orange blossom and butterscotch yet it is elegant and deeply complex. There is a captivating palate of white fruits with sublime honeyed richness with a hint of toasted oak.	104.00
45	A Paret Condrieu 'Les Ceps du Nebadon' (Condrieu, Côtes du Rhône) A rare aromatic white Rhône made from the Viognier grape variety that is both subtle and seductive. Pale-yellow colour is highlighted by golden glints, and the intense bouquet expresses aromas of field flowers (iris & violets) and apricots. The supple yet heady palate is spicy, long and unctuous whilst remaining fresh and well-balanced.	119.00
33	Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru "Les Perrieres", 2012 (Côtes d'Or, Burgundy, France) This small family domaine on the outskirts of the village of Puligny embodies meticulous traditional winemaking with minimal use of oak. This wine is complex and elegant with flavours of ripe apples and lemons, with a long after taste.	129.00
31	Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru Louis Latour, 2014 (Côtes d'Or, Burgundy, France) From the famous Corton-Charlemagne AOC in the Cote de Beaune subregion of Burgundy. A pale gold in colour with notes of apples and toasted almonds on the nose. The palate is powerful and generous with fleshy peach and apple notes combined with cream and almonds. The silky mouthfeel is balanced perfectly with a fresh acidity and a distinctive minerality.	150.00
32	Bâtard Montrachet Grand Cru Dom. Morey Coffinet, 2012 (Côtes d'Or, Burgundy, France) Wonderful complexity and power here. Loads of spice and mineral frame the apricot and citrus flavors, all supported by a lively acidity and dense texture. Big, as expected from this appellation, with a long, lingering aftertaste. Very fresh finish.	235.00

139	Santenay 1er Cru, Maladiere Dom. Prieur Brunet 2015 (Santenay, Côte d'Or, Burgundy) The Maladiere plot in heart of the Santenay vineyards. A pale ruby colour, yet richly fragrant of cherry and violet.	68.00
126	La Reserve d'Angludet, Margaux (Médoc, France) The strict selection in vineyard and from cask ensures the finished wine shares the same finesse, complexity and elegance of a fine Margaux. Supple dark fruits, licorice and spice notes are held by assertive but ripe tannins.	72.00
159	Brunello di Montalcino Donatella Colombini (Tuscany, Italy) Tuscany's most intense and famed red wine. It expresses a powerful, assertive character, complex and mineral, leather, truffle and orange peel nuances.	75.00
152	Barolo 'Serralunga' Rivetto (Piedmont, Italy) Serralunga is one of the most famous vineyard sites of Barolo. Intense, full bodied; a wonderful scent of violets and roses.	89.00
133	Nuits-Saint-Georges 1er Cru 'La Richemone' Dom. Michelot, 2016 (Côte de Nuits, Burgundy) Bold, mighty Nuits with a touch of Vosne class. This has force and power. Intense mineral and long. The fruit is glossy and lush but a distinct strength and density sits behind this. A complex array of mineral and salt-infused damson, black cherry, sloe and bramble fruit.	95.00
163	Marques de Riscal, Baron de Chirel Reserva, 2016 (Rioja, Spain) Baked black-fruit aromas are raisiny and leathery, with notes of saddle and dried cheese. Fitting for a hot year like 2015, this Tempranillo-led blend feels full, dense and rich, but also baked and jammy. It's dry and tannic on the finish, with lasting notes of prune and blackberry.	100.00
130	Volnay 1er Cru, Clos des Chenes, Dom. Michel Lafarge, 2008 (Côte d'Or, Burgundy) Beautifully delineated aromatics and fruit are nicely framed by the clean, saline finish. This is an impeccable wine from Lafarge.	125.00
134	Cote Rotie La Landonne Dom. Rene Rostaing, 2016 (Côte d'Rotie, Rhone, France) "Subtle notes of baking spices frame hints of tea, olives and raspberries on the nose of the 2016 Côte Rôtie la Landonne. A paragon of elegance, it's medium to full-bodied, but silky from start to lingering finish. It's a wine that's pretty much guaranteed to make even the steeliest curmudgeon smile, as it's so bright, ephemeral and luscious." Robert Parker's Wine Advocate	160.00
158	Tenuta San Guido Sassicaia Bolgheri, 2011 (Tuscany, Italy) "Super Tuscans" were released to huge plaudits from across the industry and 2011 has produced a vintage that is in many cases just as fine – amongst the wines, Sassicaia has excelled. There is a nobility to the wine, with roasted herbs, plums, liquorice and just a touch of menthol.	259.00
122	La Fleur Petrus, 2010 (Pomerol, Bordeaux, France) Full-bodied, extravagantly luscious, with a skyscraper-like mid-palate and phenomenal length of close to 50 seconds, the wine has plenty of tannin, but the voluptuous fruit, power and overall glycerin and intensity tend to conceal much of it. Elegant but compellingly rich and authoritative, the 2010 is a truly magnificent wine for this estate, which has one of the finest terroirs in all of Pomerol. Robert Parker's Wine Advocate	290.00
